Spend more time getting to know Nungwi.

One major beach destination on the island is Nungwi Beach situated at the north-western tip of the island. It is home to powdery white sand, crystal blue waters, and exotic flora and fauna. Here are three other reasons why Nungwi Beach is your next island paradise destination,

1. Warm temperatures all year round

The island of Zanzibar is located around the equatorial region and gets warm sunny weather most of the time, perfect for getting your tan on. Just watch out for the occasional rain and storms before your visit.

2. Amazing Sunset views

Nungwi Beach, Zanzibar runs along the western coast to the northern tip of the island so it is witness to amazing sunset views, which will surely score points for those who want to get social media-worthy photos. Tourists can enjoy a drink on the rooftop bar as the sun sets over the tropical horizon. Locals also offer a sunset cruise on a Dhow boat. This is one of the reasons that make Nungwi a popular romantic destination for couples.
