Pick Up Day, Visit Maasai Village, Night Game Drive (mikumi park)

It's time to begin your safari. Welcome to Tanzania! After we greet you and provide you with the trip briefing, we'll take you out to help you discover why so many people think Tanzania is the best place in Africa to go on safari.

Dar es Salaam (Pick up Point)

Many safaris begin or end here, and you'll appreciate the chance to visit the city's museums, swim at one of its beaches, or spend time in a good restaurant or busy market.

Drive to Mikumi National Park & Visit Maasai village (just outside the park)

Mikumi National Park is one of Africa's most surprising parks – you'll quickly discover that it's a wonderful place to watch wildlife. On safari here you can expect to see three of Africa's most sought-after predators – lions, leopards and Hyena. You'll also spot wildebeest, giraffes, honey badgers, buffaloes, and a long-running research center that studies yellow baboons. Watch for two giants of the African safari experience: elephants and baobabs. Surrounded by mountains, you'll enjoy excellent bird watching and a range of signature African habitats, including open plains fringed with thin woodlands.

Udzungwa Mountains National Park (Hiking Day)

Quite unlike any other park in Tanzania's east, Udzungwa Mountains National Park is where you get to go bird watching in the forest and look for the park's 10 species of primate. Udzungwa has more primate species than any other Tanzanian park. Udzungwa is an oasis of forested mountains, rich in birds and lush in its deep greens that contrast so strongly with the dry country that surrounds it in every direction. Elephants and hippos are commonly seen in the Kilombero floodplain, but it's the forest trails and Udzungwa's monkey populations that you'll most enjoy.

You'll stay at Camp Bastian Mikumi, which is a terrific base for exploring the park whose entrance is very close to here. The camp has good rooms in chalets, or a campground, which together draw a fun mix of travelers. You can also relax in the onsite restaurant or in the swimming pool. Trees fill the grounds, providing lots of shade.

Selou/Nyerere National Park (arrival day & relax)

Get to know one of Tanzania's most important national parks. Here you'll find lions – Nyerere National Park has one of Africa's biggest lion populations – elephants, crocodiles, zebras and lots of other safari animals present in large numbers. Hippos, giraffes, wildebeest and buffalo are also seen. And you might see leopards and African wild dogs if you're really lucky. Admire also the rugged landscape of rocky hills and lakes and the wide Rufiji River, all fringed with palm trees. Despite the Selous being one of the largest protected areas in East Africa, the area open for visitors is relatively small so you will enjoy a concentrated safari experience.

Selou/Nyerere National Park (boat safari)

No one ever complains about having to spend more time here in Nyerere National Park with its unique landscapes and large number of animals.

Early Morning Game Drive, Nyerere National Park

Imagine being out in the soft, early morning light, wrapped in a blanket, just as the animals emerge from their night's rest or from the shadows of their nighttime adventures. The world feels fresh and new on an early morning game drive, the sun has yet to beat down upon the earth, and it may end up being your favorite time to be out on safari.

Boat Trip, Nyerere National Park

You're in for one of southern Tanzania's highlights when we take you out on a boat trip on the Rufiji River. It's a chance to enjoy being out on the water, watch the crocs and hippos, and scan the riverbank to see what other animals come down for a drink.
