After we greet you and answer any questions you might have, we'll take great pleasure in taking you out and showing you what we mean.

Busy Arusha is an essential part of safari life here in northern Tanzania and most travelers pass through at some stage. Whether you're on your way out on safari or here for a little longer, you'll catch a glimpse of streets filled with energy and color.

Uhuru Monument in Arusha

Masailand Safari & Lodge has a fine location that combines the convenience of being close to the center of town with quiet surroundings and views of the countryside. The rooms here are large and modern with plenty of light, and you can relax in the swimming pool or the onsite restaurant. It's the perfect in-town base as you explore Tanzania's north. When the clouds clear, you may be able to see Mt Meru from here.

Northern Serengeti National Park

Explore the Northern Serengeti and get to know one of the park's most beautiful corners. Wildlife viewing is excellent all through the year, but that is especially the case whenever the migration passes through. This is also the area of the park that sees the fewest visitors, which means you can enjoy the river, grasslands, rocky scenery and the animals without interruption.

Evening Game Drive, Northern Serengeti National Park

You'll love the warm light and cooler temperatures as we take you out to explore on your evening game drive. This time of day is when both predators and prey are most active and it can feel as though anything could happen at any moment. This is when you'll most enjoy being on safari.

View the Great Migration of animals in Northern Serengeti National Park

In the Northern Serengeti, you'll see wildlife in a beautiful setting and with not many other people around. There are animals here all throughout the year, but they're everywhere when the migration is passing through. The scenery in this part of the park is also superb with plenty of Serengeti savannah grasslands between the rocky hills and Mara River.

View the great migration, Northern Serengeti National Park

Watch as wildebeest, zebra and other wildlife fill the horizon when we take you to see the great migration. It's an astonishing experience, one where the numbers of animals must be seen to be believed. There's always a chance of action whenever predators arrive on the scene.

Morning Game Drive in Serengeti & Drive back to Ngorongoro Crater

Early Morning Game Drive, Northern Serengeti National Park

Imagine being out in the soft, early morning light, wrapped in a blanket, just as the animals emerge from their night's rest or from the shadows of their nighttime adventures. The world feels fresh and new on an early morning game drive, the sun has yet to beat down upon the earth, and it may end up being your favorite time to be out on safari.

Rhino Lodge

On the crater rim

You'll enjoy being at this Maasai- and Italian-run lodge set amid thick forest not far from the crater rim. Rooms are comfortable and the setting is quite lovely amid thick forest. Elephants, buffaloes and bushbucks all venture into the grounds from time to time, while the lack of passing traffic means that things remain quiet. The predominantly Maasai staff will add much personality to your experience.

Ngorongoro is a special place and the first time that you descend onto the crater floor is like no other safari experience in Africa. This is a world unto itself, one where you'll encounter the crater's 600-strong population of hyenas, as well as critically endangered black rhinos. You'll also find elephants with larger-than-average tusks, and more than 50 lions living in the crater. But it's the sheer beauty of Ngorongoro that will most likely live longest in your memory. From early morning, mist rises from the crater, revealing steep, forested walls, secret waterways where hippos wallow, and a world of abundant wildlife hidden away from the rest of the world.
