Pick up and Drive to Mikumi National Park (Go on Night Game Drive)

It's time to begin your safari. Welcome to Tanzania! After we greet you and provide you with the trip briefing, we'll take you out to help you discover why so many people think Tanzania is the best place in Africa to go on safari.

You'll explore Mikumi National Park, nestled away in Tanzania's Southern Highlands and one of the least-known parks in the country. It's actually Tanzania's fourth-largest national park, and there's a good chance that you'll see giraffes, elephants, lions, leopards, buffaloes and crocodiles amid all the baobabs, light woodland and savannah-like plains.

Remember, too, that Mikumi is one of the best places in this region of Africa to see wild dogs. And because far fewer safaris make it out here than they do to other, better-known parks, you'll enjoy the whole experience in relative peace.

Night Game Drive, Mikumi National Park

There's something truly magical about an African night game drive. Listen out for hooting owls, whooping hyenas and yelping jackals, while an experienced guide scans the bush in search of nocturnal predators ranging in size from the powerful leopard to the tiny African wild cat.

Visit Maasai Village in Mikumi, Go on Boat Safari in Nyerere/Selou National Park

After having your early breakfast at 0700 AM, you will check-out from your hotel. Then headed to visit a local Maasai village in Mikumi. It's a memorable chance to learn about local life and Maasai culture. This activity will take about one hour and thirty minutes.

After experiencing Maasai culture, you'll start driving to your accommodation located in Selous National Park where you will check-in. The drive will take about 7 hours due to the rough roads.

Upon arrival to Selous Safari Lodge, right after check-in you will go straight to your accommodation for a short refreshment and get ready for boating safari. This evening we'll take you out to the waters so that you can experience the local environment from a whole new vantage point.

For that we call it a day!

Full Day Game Drive in Nyerere National Park

Pass more time in Nyerere National Park, with its plentiful wildlife and landscapes you won't find anywhere else.

Everyone should visit the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Selous at least once in their lives. Look for zebra, giraffe, hippo, crocodile, buffalo and wildebeest, as well as elephant and the rarer spotted hyena, leopard and African wild dog. And lions – lots of lions: many scientists believe that Nyerere National Park has more lions than any other park in Africa.

Wherever you look, the views are also impressive, with rocky hills, palm-fringed lakes, and the wide Rufiji River running through the heart of the reserve.

Bush Walk, Departure to Dar es Salaam

All good things must come to an end and this is the moment when your safari with us draws to a close. We're sorry to see you go, but you'll leave us not as a guest but as a friend and with so many amazing safari memories to take with you. We hope to see you again.

Early this morning before the sun rise, we will take you for the Bush Walk along Nyerere National Park. As you set out on foot, the sights, sounds, and scents of the Selous envelop you, this is a different approach to safari, an insight into how everything is connected, how it survives and thrives when the environment is left as nature intended.

Bush walks are a great way to get close to nature and learn more about the smaller species and the bush itself. A bush walk gives you the chance to explore the intricate details of the bush, from tiny insects to towering trees, as well as stretch your legs.
